

Has the end of furlough left you feeling sick?

Powys County Council's Money Advice Service can offer you free and confidential support to help you:

Find ways to maximise your income, and give advice on your entitlements

Apply for benefits and welfare grants

Manage your fuel costs and find better ways to heat your home

Manage your debt situation, including the option of a 'Breathing Space'

Manage your finances through better budgeting

To find out more, visit the Powys County Council website and search 'money advice'. It includes a range of free tools to help you manage your money better, and an online form that will allow you to 'request money advice'.

Alternatively call 01874 612153 or email wrtteam@powys.gov.uk

Our team members are professionally trained and accredited to offer a range of money advice and support. We also work in partnership with Macmillan Cancer Support and the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) to provide specialist money and benefit support to cancer patients, and their carers, in Powys.

Is a drop in benefits income giving you a headache?

Powys County Council's Money Advice Service can offer you free and confidential support to help you:

Find ways to maximise your income, and give advice on your entitlements

Apply for benefits and welfare grants

Manage your debt situation, including the option of a 'Breathing Space'

Manage your fuel costs and find better ways to heat your home

Manage your finances through better budgeting

To find out more, visit the Powys County Council website and search 'money advice'. It includes a range of free tools to help you manage your money better, and an online form that will allow you to 'request money advice'.

Alternatively call 01874 612153
or email wrtteam@powys.gov.uk

Our team members are professionally trained and accredited to offer a range of money advice and support. We also work in partnership with Macmillan Cancer Support and the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) to provide specialist money and benefit support to cancer patients, and their carers, in Powys.

Are rising fuel costs keeping you awake at night?

Powys County Council's Money Advice Service can offer you free and confidential support to help you:

Find ways to maximise your income, and give advice on your entitlements

Apply for benefits and welfare grants

Manage your fuel costs and find better ways to heat your home

Manage your debt situation, including the option of a 'Breathing Space'

Manage your finances through better budgeting

To find out more, visit the Powys County Council website and search 'money advice'. It includes a range of free tools to help you manage your money better, and an online form that will allow you to 'request money advice'.

Alternatively call 01874 612153 or email wrtteam@powys.gov.uk

Our team members are professionally trained and accredited to offer a range of money advice and support. We also work in partnership with Macmillan Cancer Support and the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) to provide specialist money and benefit support to cancer patients, and their carers, in Powys.

Are spiralling debts leaving you feeling dizzy?

Powys County Council's Money Advice Service can offer you free and confidential support to help you:

Find ways to maximise your income, and give advice on your entitlements

Apply for benefits and welfare grants

Manage your fuel costs and find better ways to heat your home

Manage your debt situation, including the option of a 'Breathing Space'

Manage your finances through better budgeting

To find out more, visit the Powys County Council website and search 'money advice'. It includes a range of free tools to help you manage your money better, and an online form that will allow you to 'request money advice'.

Alternatively call 01874 612153
or email wrtteam@powys.gov.uk

Our team members are professionally trained and accredited to offer a range of money advice and support. We also work in partnership with Macmillan Cancer Support and the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) to provide specialist money and benefit support to cancer patients, and their carers, in Powys.

Has redundancy left you in a state of shock?

Powys County Council's Money Advice Service can offer you free and confidential support to help you:

Find ways to maximise your income, and give advice on your entitlements

Apply for benefits and welfare grants

Manage your fuel costs and find better ways to heat your home

Manage your debt situation, including the option of a 'Breathing Space'

Manage your finances through better budgeting

To find out more, visit the Powys County Council website and search 'money advice'. It includes a range of free tools to help you manage your money better, and an online form that will allow you to 'request money advice'.

Alternatively call 01874 612153
or email wrtteam@powys.gov.uk

Our team members are professionally trained and accredited to offer a range of money advice and support. We also work in partnership with Macmillan Cancer Support and the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) to provide specialist money and benefit support to cancer patients, and their carers, in Powys.

